THE MARCO POLO GERMAN BIERFEST IS HERE!

Hong Kong, September 2009 – Now on its 18th year, the Marco Polo German Bierfest 2009 kicks off this October as Asia's largest and longest-running party marathon that everyone is talking about!

Non-stop entertainment and exciting games

From 25th October to 14th November, head down to the Marco Polo Hongkong Hotel for a fun-filled evening of authentic German bites, a head-spinning selection of beers, and all-night dancing and laughter against a panoramic backdrop of the Victoria Harbour. This year's German Bierfest also brings you traditional tunes and madcap antics by The Notenhoblers, a seven-member band from Munich.

To add to the atmosphere, a number of games have been added for guests to enjoy, including the 'Strong Man' game; 'Milking the Cow,' 'Pump-the-Balloon,' 'Chicken Dance,' various drinking contests, and many more exciting activities lined up every evening!

Let the feast begin

The culinary feast features authentic German dishes such as Munich White, Kasekrainer and Chicken – Mushroom Sausage served with Potato Salad ($95); Roasted Pork Knuckle served with Braised Red Cabbage and Gratinated Potatoes ($135); Braised Beef Steak on Red Wine-Vinegar Sauce with Braised Red Cabbage and spätzli ($105); Roasted Herb-marinated Half Chicken with Carrots and Potato Salad ($105); Pan-fried Salmon Cutlet with Lemon Sauce, Creamy Spinach and Boiled New Potatoes ($120); and Roasted Lamb Leg Pricked with Garlic on Onion-mustard Sauce, Braised Red Cabbage and Gratinated Potatoes ($120).

Then, indulge in the wide selection of beverages that include Beers, Apple Schnapps, soft drinks, juice and red and white wines.

Capping the hearty feast is a medley of extravagant desserts including Apple Strudel with Vanilla Sauce ($60); German Cheesecake with Forest Berry Compote ($60); Black Forest Cake ($60) and Grandmother's Pear Crumble Tart with Almonds and Vanilla Sauce ($60).
